

01:48:14 Ben Hamilton: Jai Guru Dev to everyone!
01:53:42 sidney culbertson: can the volume be increased a little
02:08:59 Ben Hamilton: This is an amazing revelation. He knew from the start and unfolded the systematic organization and materials as if it was just one breath. Totally amazing.
02:10:37 Ben Hamilton: The Maharishi taught by allowing his students to create the materials by which they would perpetuate this Total Knowledge and infuse it in their own chosen studies as the universe continues its own evolution.
02:13:55 Barbara Salmon: Maharishi references 'conceptualisation' in a book – the context was using a circle (of points) to represent the absolute – I'll look for ref later. So conceptualisation/s?
02:26:57 Susan Michael: Is there a way to purchase this chart?
02:27:21 Susan Michael: I tried to print it and it wasn't satisfactory.
02:28:41 Anneliese Stein: Dear Raja Peter, all these TK-courses (MERU, PP-UK and MIU) have carried us through the whole pandemic like a safe boat in stormy weather, i.e. all these Lessons were and still they are "like a bridge over troubled water". Jai Guru Dev

02:30:56 Judy White: Was the 40 qualities finalized as part of TK. It had been 36, etc. in the 90s hadn't it?
02:31:19 Sharon Long: Anneliese, I agree. I checked my notebooks and I began the online TK classes on July 14, 2020. So fortunate. Unfathomable really...

02:56:50 Judy White: How have world leaders responded to these charts since these quotes?

03:00:04 cynthia Arenander: Question: The. Damru has a string attached at the middle and at the end of the string is a ball attached so when the Damru is enlivened by twisting back and forth, the balls hit the drum. What do the balls and string represent?

03:03:37 Charlotte Judge: Of the 40 aspects of the Veda, where does the Bhagavad Gita fit in?

03:08:57 David Carpenter:

03:14:38 Lukas Bluecher: Replying to "Question: The. Damru..."
Maybe a string around the middle and then actually two strings and two balls (clappers or claquers) attached to those strings? Balls as you mention in your second half sentence. Strings of memory connecting the two points of duality back to the one point of unity at the center of the DaMaRu? Da [sanskrit: give], Ma [Creation Point, MMY explained], Ru [sanskrit: slice, quantize]

03:14:43 Lynne Waldher: H e is a perfectionist
